Plaintiffs,

v.

DALE BOSWORTH, Chief, United States
Forest Service, et al.,

Federal Defendants,

and

SIERRA NEVADA FOREST PROTECTION
CAMPAIGN, et al.,

Defendant- Intervenors,

and

PACIFIC RIVERS COUNCIL,

Defendant- Intervenor.

No. CIV-S-05-0905 MCE/GGH

ORDER STAYING
PLAINTIFFS' CLAIMS AGAINST THE 2001 FRAMEWORK

The parties in this case have requested that the Court stay the litigation of Plaintiffs' claims directly challenging the 2001 Sierra Nevada Forest Plan Amendment ("2001 Framework"). Based upon the parties' stipulation, the Court finds that it is in the interest of judicial economy to stay Plaintiffs' direct challenges to the 2001 Framework. The Court

1 therefore ORDERS that the parties' request is hereby GRANTED. The stay shall continue unless
2 and until this Court, or another court, sets aside the 2004 Framework, or until the 2001
3 Framework becomes operative through some other mechanism.

4 It is so ORDERED.
